CONDITION OF PATIENT IS SATISFACTORY TO HIS SIX PHYSICIANS

Third Day of Col. Roosevelt's Stay in Mercy Hospital Passes Quietly
Without Any Serious
Developments

FAMOUS PATIENT IS BY NO MEANS OUT OF DANGER

Will Require Another Day of Waiting for Symptoms of Sepsis Before Medical Men Can Pronounce the Colonel Entirely Out of Danger—Bullet from the
Would-Be Assassin's Gun May Never Be Removed.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The third day of Colonel Roosevelt's stay in the Mercy Hospital passed quietly. The dread of serious developments was largely allayed, although his physicians were careful to say that the patient was by no means out of danger. It will require another day of waiting for symptoms of sepsis before the medical men, if there is no change for the worse, will be able to say: "All is well."

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The most reassuring bulletin yet issued by the physicians of Colonel Roosevelt, was given to the public at 1:00 o'clock today, and said:

"Pulse, temperature and respiration normal. Blood count has dropped to normal. Breathing seems easier."

The bulletin is signed by Drs. Murphy, Lambert and Terrell.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Six doctors making the most extended survey of Colonel Roosevelt's wound attempted since his arrival at the Mercy Hospital, found his condition as nearly normal as a wounded man's condition could be, and renewed their assurance that there was no longer cause for worry. It was also announced positively that Colonel Roosevelt would not leave the hospital until next week at least.

The examination was made by Drs. Murphy, Bevan, Lambert, Terrell, John F. Golden and William B. McCauley.

Dr. Lambert, the family physician explained that there was no significance in the fact that the bulletin said the bullet would not be removed at present. "You see," he said, "when we talk of the future, we must of necessity be indefinite. To illustrate, suppose sepsis were to set in and we had said the bullet would not be removed. It would make itself so clear as to attract our attention in a single hour, and then the previous assertion would appear either misleading or indicate that we were misinformed."

"So, we say that the bullet will not be removed now. It depends on two things, whether it will ever be removed. One is, if it starts causing trouble, and the other, if Colonel Roosevelt would rather carry his souvenir in his pocket than in his chest."

Dr. John F. Golden said it had been definitely settled not to move the Colonel until after Saturday. Mrs. Roosevelt is pleased with the situation and will remain in Chicago with her husband until he is completely recovered and able to return east with her.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The following bulletin was issued at 9:05 a. m.:

"Pulse 72; temperature, 98.3; respiration 18 all night long. Wound dressed. Looks well. Some oozing. The examination was made by Dr. Alexander Lambert and shows lungs in good condition and general condition splendid. The case is progressing favorably, so favorably that unless some complications occur, the bullet will not be removed at present."

DR. ARTHUR B. BEVAN,
DR. ALEXANDER LAMBERT,
DR. S. L. TERRELL.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, whose life was attempted in Milwaukee last Monday evening, already is feeling so much better and has shown so much improvement that on awakening today he began planning for a continuation of his campaign trip. Most of last night the Colonel spent in restful sleep. At 6 o'clock his temperature was 98.4, his pulse 74, and respiration 18, indicating a condition practically normal.

During the night the Colonel passed most of the time in sleep and only on rare occasions did he awaken and then only for a few moments at a time in which to permit his night nurse to take his clinical record which almost invariably showed his condition to be excellent and near normal. The Colonel never has required a great deal of sleep, so he told the nurse, and it was not until after 11 o'clock that he settled down seriously to obtain rest.

From 11 o'clock on he was asleep most of the time until 4 o'clock this morning when he awoke declaring he "had had a bully sleep," but would not read because he wished to remain quiet and doze until it was time for his sponge bath. He said he intended to be fully awake when 7 o'clock came so that he could have his breakfast for which he already was beginning to feel the need.

Instead of having his bath a little before 7 o'clock the Colonel decided he had not had enough sleep and his nurse helped him to turn over and he again soon closed his eyes. The many hours he had been able to rest is declared by the physicians to be the best medicine for him and he was allowed to sleep as long as he wished.

Once during the night the Colonel was visited by Mrs. Roosevelt, who occupies the room adjoining. She had been awakened by the entrance of the nurse into the Colonel's room to take his clinical record. She remained only a short time as he assured her he was "feeling just fine."

All of the clinical records of the night have shown the Colonel's condition to be improved from the last official bulletin issued by the attending physicians at 10 o'clock last night. At that time his temperature was 98.6; his pulse 84 and his respiration 20.

The Colonel's breakfast as usual consisted of bacon, three soft boiled eggs, buttered toast and a pot of tea. When he ordered it he complained because he said he was feeling so well

WORLD REJOICES THAT COLONEL ROOSEVELT WILL LIVE; NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS BLAMED FOR ASSASSIN'S MAD ATTACK

JOHN SCHRANK AND COLONEL ROOSEVELT.

From ocean to ocean men and women in every walk of life and of all shades of political belief are deeply stirred by the attempt of an assassin to take the life of Colonel Roosevelt. Everywhere are heard expressions of sorrow that the president should have been struck down and of rejoicing that his recovery is sure.

Not only in America, but all over Europe this concern is evident. In London and in every large city on the continent great crowds eagerly watched bulletins broadcast for many hours after the attempted assassination to read the latest reports concerning the condition of the great American whom a crazed crank had attempted to kill.

Colonel Roosevelt himself believes that the attempted assassination came as a consequence of persistent and bitter attacks which have been launched against him by certain great New York newspapers. The would-be assassin declared shortly after the shooting that the attacks of New York papers had in part induced him to commit his mad act.

Elbert E. Martin, Roosevelt's stenographer, the man who overpowered Schrank, the assassin, before he could fire a second shot, has received congratulations from many quarters for the part he played in the near tragedy. He was a prominent member of the 1912 class of the Detroit College of Law.

MONTELLA WATHA GETS COMMUTATION OF PEN SENTENCE TO 3 YEARS

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Montella Watha of Newark, serving twenty years in the penitentiary for complicity in the lynching of Carl Elderington at Newark in July, 1910, was given a commutation of sentence to three years by the State Board of Pardons today.

On Dec. 17, 1910, the jury sitting in the case returned a verdict of guilty, and on Dec. 22 of the same year Watha was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary, and on the same night was taken to Columbus to start serving the sentence.

In July, 1912, at the regular meeting of the Board of Pardons, Attorneys Flory & Flory of Newark made application for a commutation of sentence, appearing before the board to make the verbal argument in the matter.

In the consideration which followed the application the board reviewed all the testimony and the evidence in the trial, as contained in the bill of exceptions, and took into consideration the sentence imposed upon Watha in contrast with the sentence imposed upon others who were found guilty of active participation in the riot.

At this time Watha has served almost two years of the sentence imposed by the court, and the commutation of sentence, together with the good time earned by him while in confinement will bring the date of his release from the penitentiary in the latter part of May, 1913.

GOV. WILSON DELIGHTED OVER ROOSEVELT'S RECOVERY---WILL CURTAIL HIS OWN SPEECHES

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—"I am delighted to know that Mr. Roosevelt is getting along so nicely, and I certainly hope that there will be no turn for the worse."

This statement was made last night by Governor Woodrow Wilson as he stepped on board his private car, the Federal, to leave for Wilmington, Del., where he is to speak today.

He endeavored yesterday to cancel engagements this week, but found that it would be necessary to go to Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. His managers also notified him that they had been unable to call off the meetings in New York and Brooklyn on Saturday night.

In the few speeches he is compelled to make this week the Governor will not discuss the new party's program. He will take up issues which have not been considered as paramount in the campaign, and will confine his discussions to what the Democratic party proposes to do if entrusted with power.

Speaking engagements which the Governor has cancelled include tours of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine.

Of course, if Mr. Roosevelt recovers sufficiently to again take an active part in the campaign the Governor will feel at liberty to resume his speechmaking.

TURKEY HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST STATES OF BALKAN PENINSULA

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 17.—Two hundred Arnaut tribesmen were killed this morning in a battle with the Serbian troops on the frontier. The Serbian fatalities have not been reported.

London, Oct. 17.—War today became general throughout the Balkan peninsula. Turkey, which for several months has been fighting with Montenegro, today issued formal declaration of hostilities against Serbia and Bulgaria. Greece for some reason, was not mentioned in the official documents delivered to the Serbian and Bulgarian legations at Constantinople, and the Greek minister has not been asked to leave the Turkish capital as were the Serbian and Bulgarian ambassadors.

In her declaration of war, Turkey places the blame on Bulgaria and Serbia, whose actions she says forced her to take a decisive step, although she is desirous of peace.

7:30 p. m.—Dr. Lyon's greatest sermon, "THE DEAD LINE IN AMUSEMENTS," scoring card playing, dancing and theatre-going. Come early and get a seat.

Mrs. Grace Powell will sing.

In a ringing denunciation of the evils of procrastination, and classifying those who continually reject Jesus Christ as no better than those who crucified Him on that Friday, 1912 years ago, Dr. Lyon last night preached a sermon which, in point of strength, impassioned pleading for lost souls to come to the Master and convicting power, far exceeded any sermon yet preached during the revival campaign.

The attendance for the evening, conservatively estimated at nearly 3,000 persons, was swelled by the presence of 250 of Newark's "business girls," employees of various shops, stores and offices, who entered the big tabernacle in a body shortly after 7 o'clock.

The young ladies had been guests of the Christian women of Newark at a dinner at the Plymouth Congregational church at 5:30 o'clock, and their enthusiastic assistance in the service that preceded Dr. Lyon's address was most inspiring.

Another delegation, showing the deep hold that the gospel of Christ can have on the hearts of men, was that of the Buckeye Rolling Mills, where Judge Holloway and his assistants have been holding noon day meetings since their arrival. They are fifty men on the pay roll of the Buckeye mill, and of this number thirty-five were present at the Lyon meeting, occupying seats well toward the front in the middle section.

Great Song Service.
The opening song service was a most enthusiastic one. The men of the Buckeye mill and the girls from Newark's business houses joined in the choruses with a zeal and ability that promises great things for Newark. "Let the Lower Lights be Burning," that hymn which has become a classic in the minds of men, was the especial favorite of the Buckeye rollers, while the ladies chose as their favorite, "Yes, I'll Sing the Wondrous Story," and their singing of this number was so splendid that Prof. Mitchell will find a few new recruits from the aggregation for his chorus choir. The big chorus choir rendered two special numbers, "The Church in the Wilderness," one of Excell's favorites, and "Someone's Last Call," both of which demanded the sincere applause of the visiting delegations. "Onward, Christian Soldiers," the "New Glory Song" and the revival love song, "Oh, How You'll Love Him" were the songs in which the big audience participated to the best advantage, arousing the commendation of Prof. Mitchell by the manner in which they threw their whole spirit into the work.

Immediately following a prayer by Rev. Mr. Green, pastor of the Woodside Presbyterian church, and the reading of a portion of the 27th chapter of Matthew (the story of the Crucifixion) by Mrs. Frances Allison, of the Moody Bible Institute, Dr. Lyon took the platform, amid the greatest applause that he has ever received in Newark. It was several moments before he could begin his introductory remarks, which were highly congratulatory.

Suggests a "Union Night."
He told of his former pastorate in a town where the Federal Rolling Mills had a large plant and said, "No class of men make me feel any more at home than the factory men and the mill men. I trust that the men of the laboring unions here in Newark will do as they did at other places—have a workingman's night. At one place, the workingmen, 1500 of them, marched into the meeting together." Dr. Lyon related that on that occasion he talked on socialism—and a few other things. "I believe in socialism," he added. "I believe in brotherhood, in the fraternity in Jesus Christ. We will have to have a night before this campaign closes when we can have the workingmen of this city march in to this tabernacle together."

"I also want to congratulate the working girls," said the evangelist. "It is a good thing to see a girl working her way as well as the boys. This class of girls don't take up with every fellow that comes along. They are the girls that are making their own living, and a young fellow has to be clean and up-to-date before these girls will have anything to do with him."

After the Amusements.
The announcement that on Friday night Dr. Lyon would strike a few solar plexus blows at questionable amusements—hitting the theatre, the card table, the dance hall and a few other things—aroused great enthusiasm, and it is certain that the big tabernacle will be crowded to the doors tomorrow night. This sermon has been commented upon in the press all over the country, and declared to exceed any discussion of the popular evils of the day ever given from an evangelistic platform.

"The Classes at the Cross" was the theme handled in his most excellent manner by Dr. Lyon last night, and was based upon Matthew 27:35, "And (Continued on Page Two—Col. 1.)

GRANVILLE BAPTISTS WILL BE PROMINENT AT STATE CONVENTION AT COLUMBUS

Scores of Newark and Granville Baptists will attend the 87th annual meeting of the Ohio Baptist Convention at the Tenth Avenue Baptist church, Columbus, next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, according to statements made Thursday morning by pastors and workers of local Baptist churches. The convention is one of the vital phases of the denominational work, in that it discusses all of the various departmental needs of the church, and serves as a sort of "revival" for the church interests and activities.

Dr. C. J. Rose of Granville, is general secretary of the convention, Dr. R. S. Colwell, registrar and acting president of Denison University, is its treasurer, and Wilson A. Holmes is general secretary of the Bible School work. These three men will no doubt be returned to office at the annual election of officers, on next Tuesday afternoon.

The convention is particularly fortunate in securing the new Tenth avenue church for their sessions. The church is to be dedicated on Sunday morning and it is expected that a great number of the five hundred or more delegates will be in attendance at the dedicatory service.

The annual meeting of the Ohio Baptist Educational society is to be held in connection with the convention, its sessions occupying all of the Tuesday evening program. The officials of this organization, which tends to supervise the educational affairs of Baptist homes and churches, are Dr. Emory W. Hunt of Granville, president; Prof. Benjamin Spencer of Granville, corresponding secretary and treasurer, and Dr. R. H. Hundley of Doane Academy, Granville, recording secretary. These officials, with the exception of Dr. Hunt, who is at present enjoying a tour of the world, will be present at the Columbus session.

The convention has secured some speakers of national reputation for this year's sessions, among whom is President S. E. Price, Ph.D., of Ohio Wesleyan University, Kansas. Dr. Price is a former resident of Licking county, a member of the Price family that has been a powerful factor in the development of the Welsh Hills section.

"Ohio and the World's Needs" will be discussed by Rev. Howard Wayne Smith of Philadelphia, and addresses are to be made by Rev. S. L. Roberts, a prominent Sunday School worker of Franklin, Ind.; President E. Y. Mullins of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky.; Rev. W. W. Bustard, pastor of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church, Cleveland; Rev. Henry Bond of Brattleboro, Vt., president of the Northern Baptist convention; Rev. Millard Brelsford and Rev. H. F. Stillwell of Cleveland, president of the Ohio Convention.

IDENTIFIES THE SIGNATURES AT DYNAMITE TRIAL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 17.—A letter, written by Olaf A. Tveitmo, San Francisco, to Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' Union, expressing thanks for "Christmas presents to the Pacific Coast," was identified by C. C. Campbell, assistant cashier of a San Francisco bank, at the dynamite conspiracy trial today. The witness stated he was familiar with Tveitmo's signature, because he kept an account as secretary of the Building Trades Council of California at the bank in which he worked. The government charges that Tveitmo referred to the Los Angeles explosion when he wrote "Christmas presents" and that the Llewellyn Iron Works explosion on Christmas Day was solicited by Tveitmo at a meeting with Ryan in St. Louis after the Los Angeles Times explosion.

Thomas Hamble, editor of a union paper, identified the signature of Charles N. Beum of Minneapolis, to letters which the government charges Beum wrote to promote the dynamite conspiracy.

TAKING PLACE OF STRIKERS

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 17.—Many miners from Ohio and Kentucky are being taken into the Kanawha coal field to fill the places made vacant by the removal of striking miners to other districts, and coal operators have expressed the belief that the problems of the past few months are being satisfactorily solved.

Some of the mines are in operation with their former workers, but it is said that 3,000 men are needed to keep them going at full speed. Military men here believe that additional companies will be ordered home within the next few days.

OBITUARY

ROBERT MULLENIX.
The death of Robert Mullenix, an employee of the B. & O. railroad, at his boarding house, 39 Cedar street, shortly before noon, has aroused the deepest regrets of his fellow workmen and Newark friends. Mr. Mullenix, who is between 60 and 65 years of age, returned from his work, as usual, this morning, and retired. About 10 o'clock he asked that a doctor be called, as he felt that his last hour had come. Dr. R. G. Downs was called, but Mr. Mullenix was stricken shortly after he arrived and in spite of valiant efforts, his life could not be saved.

The deceased formerly lived at Mount Erie, Md., and is survived by a daughter in Pittsburgh, and one son, William Mullenix of this city, one of the most popular engineers on the B. & O. system.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT BATES.

The funeral of Robert Bates will be held at the East Main street M. E. church at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, instead of at the home in Gay street.

MEMORIALS OF QUALITY

GREEKS OF NEWARK WILL LEAVE SHORTLY TO BATTLE FOR THEIR NATIVE LAND

Newark is to gain some little prominence before long in the controversy between the Balkan States and Greece and the Turkish empire, through the sending of a substantial corps of recruits to fight under the Greek flag and lift the heel of the oppressor from the downtrodden smaller states.

The fact that Greeks employed at local factories are rapidly quitting their work and preparing to go to the front became known last night. It is learned that fully a score of Greek soldiers, men who have had the advantage of training in military affairs before coming to this country, are now anxiously awaiting instructions from the national organization in New York City.

The leaders in the local movement are John Barbaoulis, who is part owner in the new Manhattan restaurant in South Third street, and George Arapakis, a young Greek who has been employed at the Wehrle plant. The former is an officer in the Greek army, subject to mobilization, and enjoys the title of "lohas," which corresponds to "captain" in the American army.

Barbaoulis says that he expects local Greeks will be called to the front during the coming week. A number of ships have been chartered in New York and are leaving at intervals of about three days. This lands the soldiers in the fighting zone within three weeks, assuring the supporters of the Greek cause plenty of active fighting, as the conflict is not likely to end for several months.

"Why should we not return to our native land to fight for the safety of our relatives?" said a young Greek to an Advocate representative last night. "Most of us have become American citizens, but there is always that love of country that no government can wipe out. We cannot see our countrymen suffering without doing something to aid them."

"Many of the Greeks in Newark have relatives in Macedonia, where the Turks are inflicting the heaviest punishments daily. We get reports of massacres and awful pain that the Turks are responsible for, and don't know how long it is going to be before some of our people are killed by the Turks or carried into the worst kind of slavery."

"We're going back to Greece, many of us without setting our expenses paid, but where the safety of our parents and other relatives is concerned, money doesn't count."

This is the spirit that promises to raise the Balkan States to freedom—the spirit of sacrifice of everything for the cause of right and with the Greeks who go from Newark should go the best wishes of every American citizen, with the memory that it was just such an intention that brought the United States to its present power and prominence.

WHEN WOMAN'S WORK IS DONE.
Somebody said, "Woman's work is never done." Anything that emancipates her from this form of slavery is hailed with joy. This is the reason for the constantly increasing popularity of "Easy Task Soap," the hard, white, pure laundry soap, that does half the work of washday by itself. Add to this the fact that it positively does not rot or streak the clothes, that it launders, cleans, brightens, and makes beautiful table cloths and all fabrics perfectly, and you will understand why it should be in your house right away.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.
Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time."

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.
New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything."

"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.
Wauschula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles."

"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman. I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MARTIE HODGON, Box 406, Wauschula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.
Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself."

"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.
Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed."

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it."

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Governor Wilson canceled nearly all his speaking engagements in consequence of the attempted assassination of Colonel Roosevelt and will omit all discussion of the Progressive party until the Colonel recovers and is able to speak again.

Speaking of registration in the leading eastern cities the Philadelphia Record says that there is a falling off, especially in Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia. In all three of the cities the falling off is in the strongly Republican wards. The indications are plain that about all the election can do is to determine the size of the Democratic majority.

The Republicans have "cold feet" on registration days in the cities of New York (Philadelphia cities of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Perhaps the war between Turkey and the Balkan states will make a revolution that the civilized world has needed for several centuries. If Greece had an Alexander or if Europe had a Richard-the-Lion-Hearted at such a momentous time as this Christianity might justly come back to its own and the civilized world redeemed from the barbarism that today is its greatest menace.

The tariff is the great issue of the present Presidential contest. The discussion of the matter will turn chiefly and rightfully upon the extent to which the Republican party in the making of tariff rates has proven itself a mere instrumentality of powerful protected interests. Great monopolies have been created and so fed and fostered at the expense of the bone and sinew of the nation that in the insolence of power they seek to make the policy of favoritism a policy of permanence. The split in the Republican party at this juncture is a godsend for the people of the United States. It enables them at one stroke to pull down plutocracy and restore Democracy without resort to any other form of compulsion than the push of the ballot box.

The market reports would give the uninitiated the impression that the laws of nature were being trifled with, but when it is announced that "iron goes up rapidly" it is only meant that the price is advancing. The Iron Age says that the change in the market for Bessemer and basic pig iron is "almost sensational." The iron and steel trade has been described as the commercial barometer, and business activity and prosperity have come right along with the certainty of Wilson's election.

Terrible Suffering

Excruciating Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie it up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Baring, Maine. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

A PARTY SHIPWRECK

(Enquirer)

Political conditions throughout the Union have assumed such form that it would now seem to be impossible for his opponents to defeat Governor Wilson.

The Republican party has given much of its strength to the Progressive party; a large number of its former members are now supporting the Socialist ticket, and yet another class of Republicans are openly supporting Wilson's candidacy, hopeless of the success of the Republican ticket and desiring to insure the defeat of Colonel Roosevelt, to whom they attribute the downfall and disruption of their old party.

These are conditions prevailing in every state of the union, from Maine to California—conditions admitted by adherents of all the candidates, conditions that absolutely preclude the success of any candidate save Governor Wilson.

That the Democrats are suffering slight losses in certain states and districts is undoubtedly true, a few to the Republicans, a few to the Socialists, more, possibly, to the Progressive candidate for the Presidency, but these losses combined are a very small percentage of the party vote, while the gains for Wilson can be estimated at more than three times these combined losses.

This is true in New England, it is true of the middle West and the far West, and in the judgment

Senator Works of California, a Republican Progressive, decided very positively about it when he said the sensible thing to do is to vote for Woodrow Wilson.

THE COST OF LIVING.

If the cost of living advances 62 per cent in the next ten years as it has in the past ten, what will the great army of American families whose incomes are around $600 a year have on their tables? What will they and their children wear? What will they be able to save for old age?

These are serious questions. The cost of living is leaping higher and higher, wages are lowered, and millions in middle age today see their children deprived of nourishing food stuffs that were common on all tables 15 and 20 years ago. The workingmen's menu is growing smaller each day and is gradually approaching the point when it will no longer give them the strength to carry on their day's work at the pace they have been going. That means a reduction in earning power, and less food and clothing.

The truth is the high cost of living is made to order. Prices are not fixed by competition, or by the law of supply and demand; but by private understanding, and wages are reduced or held stationary in the same manner. There can be no relief until import duties on the necessities of life are materially reduced and criminal conspiracies to reduce labor cost are broken up. The Republican protective tariff costs the American consumers at least $2,000,000,000 annually.

In the 1908 campaign President Taft promised a revision of the tariff downward, and in reckless disregard of that pledge vetoed house tariff bills that would have reduced the cost of living $650,000,000 a year.

It is clear that Woodrow Wilson is the only candidate in the race, who will provide intelligent revision downward, and the only party which will give it is the Democratic party.

So we may accept the betting odds and the prices of United States steel stock as showing that the business people of New York have great confidence that the election of Wilson will not injure business to the remotest extent.

ment of the great majority of persons familiar with the situation there is but one result to this presidential contest, and that is the sweeping victory of the Democratic party.

Its opponents have contributed more to this result than its friends were able to do.

All that many Republican leaders are now seeking or hoping is to save enough of the old organization machinery control to prevent the National Progressive party from absorbing in future the remaining Republican strength.

The situation in Ohio and Indiana in this regard finds its counterpart in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, in every state of all New England, in Wisconsin and in every Western State until the Pacific Coast line is reached.

It is a political disaster to the Republican party as complete as the wreck of the Titanic was to the vessel, its officers, crew and passengers.

Many brave people went to their fate with the vessel, knowing full well that their only safety lay in the boats and the life belts, and so now hundreds of thousands of Republicans will go to the polls on November 5 to vote their old ticket without a hope of success, without a single chance to win, but will vote it to mark their devotion to their party and its candidates.

WM. A. ASHBROOK.

Strong citizenship and a will to do the bidding of the men who elected him their congressman are the characteristics which make Wm. A. Ashbrook stand out among the men that Ohio has sent to congressional duties. The perfect manner in which he does things for his constituents and the propriety of the uses to which he puts that energy and industry, are sufficient warrant for his unanimous return to the House of Representatives as the political representative of this district. It was in recognition of these facts that the Republicans made no nomination.

There has not been a complaint possible since Mr. Ashbrook was sent to Washington to represent the 17th congressional district of Ohio. His knowledge of affairs political has won him the friendship of the representatives of other states and their support of the measures he has advocated for his constituents. His judgment has been relied upon implicitly by the older men as well as the new, and he has been accorded recognition in all the caucus actions of his party. The friendship of Mr. Ashbrook for the men who fought under the Stars and Stripes has been demonstrated more than once. So well has he been known and recognized as the old soldiers' friend that from many other states he has been consulted by them for advice and assistance. His whole congressional course has been guided by a firm desire to aid humanity. His attitude has been that of "one of the people" trying to serve the "rest of the people"—the militant spirit of Democracy that is going to return him to legislative annals for further victories and further benefits for the 17th Ohio district.

Household Economy

How to Make the Most Cough Syrup and Save $2. by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pain, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quaiaccol and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Why Some People Travel

DOWN that trail about a quarter of a mile, you get one of the finest views in this part of the country," said the driver, as he stopped the carriage. "We can't drive down there, but it's not much of a walk."

"I don't think I'll go," objected one of the ladies. "It looks muddy." The others walked to the point and feasted on the wonderful views of mountain and wood and waterfall spread before them.

At another point, a few miles farther on, the driver once more halted. "Here," he said, "is another great view. Go down those steps to the platform. It's not far."

Once more the lady objected. "It looks windy out there," she said. "I think I'll stay in the carriage. My hair would be all blown to pieces."

So again she sat in the carriage while the others enjoyed a mountain panorama never to be forgotten.

That evening at the hotel she was finally induced, after much persuasion, to walk some little distance to see the bears which were featured as one of the shows of the place.

She looked at them scornfully. "I don't see any sense," she said after a minute or so, "standing here in the cold to see bears. You can see them much more comfortably in the zoo at home. If the management want to show you the bears, why don't they bring them up to the hotel where they can be seen comfortably from the porch?"

And she went back to the hotel and spent the rest of the evening sending post-cards to friends.

"Why does she take trips?" asked someone of the lady who was traveling with her.

"She likes to say she's been to a place," replied the friend, somewhat apologetically. "She really doesn't care about seeing anything. And she is very particular about looking smart. That's the reason she won't walk or climb. One can't be stylish and a tourist too. If a person wants to take in all the sights of a trip like this, he is going to get his shoes muddy and his hair blown to bits. But she always wants to look as if she came out of a bandbox, and so she sits in the carriage."

"Then she wants to send postals to everybody she knows to show where she is," continued the friend. "And when people talk about a place she wants to be able to say, 'Oh, yes; I was there. Isn't it grand?'"

"Why don't she go to a moving picture show?" laughed one. "She could travel that way quite comfortably without muddying her shoes or mussing her hair."

Then the little party went back to the hotel, and the object of their discussion announced to them triumphantly:

"I have sent off twenty-five post-cards while you were out there in the cold looking at those miserable bears."

SOMETHING ABOUT CHINWARE.
 Every woman is proud of her china, and wants to keep it looking new and perfect. So often she will use the wrong kind of soap on it and injure it in appearance—make it look worn and cheap. "Easy Task Soap"—the hard, white, pure laundry soap—is the only kind to use on china. Not only does it clean china quickly and safely, but its antiseptic qualities sterilize the china. In these days of germ-caused diseases this is an important point.

Automatic Principles are the principles which have determined all recent improvements of the Remington Typewriter

Take, for example, that latest exclusive Remington improvement, the TABULATOR SET KEY

The Set Key of the Decimal Tabulator eliminates all hand setting of the Tabulator stops. It makes the setting of these stops for any kind of form or tabular work as quick, as easy and as simple as the operation of the Tabulator itself.

This is another important, labor saving step toward the goal of Remington effort, which is to bring every essential act in the operation of the typewriter within the compass of the keyboard. The labor saving value of the Set Key of the Model 11 Remington is attested by thousands of operators.

Send for our illustrated booklet describing the new and exclusive features of the Remington Typewriter Visible Models 10 and 11.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Two Little Princes of The Tower

VELYN often wished she had real curls instead of straight hair that had to be carefully combed and braided when she wanted a nice wave.

"Perhaps if you had curls you would not long for them. Jack and I might put them sometimes," joked daddy.

"Curly? Curly are silly?" was Jack's boylike comment.

"Well, there are not more silly for girls than for boys. Master Jack," said daddy, "and there was a time when boys and girls both wore curls.

"Why, a few hundred years ago even men wore them. In old pictures you can see gentlemen with their hair falling over their collars in nice curls. Not all the curls could have been natural. In those days, maybe, many a fine gentleman went to bed with his hair done up in papers to give it the stylish curl just as some little girls do now.

"One can see that some little boys looked very nice with curls. There is the picture of the two little princes in the tower which was painted by Sir John Millais, the great English artist. A photograph of it hangs in the sitting room, you know—the one showing the two little boys in velvet suits.

"The two little princes of the tower were the sons of a king of England. When their father died their wicked Uncle Richard wanted to be king instead of only ruling the country till his nephews grew up.

"So he put the two dear little princes into the big prison in London which was known as the tower.

"The little boys lived in prison for some time. At first their uncle did not mean to harm them. But he wished to be king so much that at last he was ready to do anything to get rid of them.

"You see, the older of the two boys, Prince Edward, would be king when he was old enough. If he should die before that time then his younger brother, Prince Richard, would take his place.

"He tried at first to get the English people to like him so well that they would ask him to be king instead of his nephew, and though some of his friends pretended that the people wanted him, he knew that as long as his nephews lived he would be uncertain of his new honors.

"So he sent a bad man to the officer who had charge of the tower, telling this officer that he wished him to kill the little boys.

"This officer, however, had grown to be very fond of the young princes, and, besides, he was a good man.

"He sent the king's messenger away and so long as he could kept the boys safe from their wicked uncle."

SPEAKERS WILL TOUR THE STATES

Columbus, O., Oct. 17. — Former Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri will make a three-days' campaign tour of Ohio, beginning Oct. 26, according to an announcement made today by the Democratic state chairman, W. L. Farley.

The Progressive state chairman announced today that the Progressives have chartered a special train which will tour the state before the election, carrying campaign speakers. The cost of the train will be $2000 a day.

GOVERNOR ORDERS MOBILIZATION OF THE STATE POLICE

Ely, Nevada, Oct. 17. — Two Greek strikers were killed today at McGill, where the attempts of union men to close the Steptoe mill and smelter have caused much disorder and impelled Governor Oddie to order the mobilization of the Nevada state police.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Dangerous Wells.
"Let us consider the average farm well," says a bulletin of the Chicago health department. "On the average farm we find it dug, often shallow dug, in close proximity to the privy vault, to the pigsty, to the sheep ditch or to the manure pile at the barn side. With every rainfall the unspeakable filth from these places and wastes is washed overground or through the earth to the well. Instead of being a receptacle for pure water, it becomes the receptacle for every possible kind of filth in liquid form. Many people have an idea that in the process of being strained through the ground all liquid which seeps into the well is cleared or filtered of everything harmful. Such an idea is far from correct. What does happen, and unfortunately, too, is that visible filth is removed in the process of ground straining, while the more harmful invisible filth remains. We say it is unfortunate that the visible filth is removed. If it remained it would effectively serve as a warning against the use of that water."

PIMPLES GO—BEAUTY COMES

You Just Can't Help Having a Beautiful Complexion If You Use Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

Pimples! Horrors! And what a wonderful change when they are all gone. Most every one has noticed this.

Work is progressing rapidly on the foundation for the new Masonic Temple at Fourth and Church Sts. Cement workers are now pouring the concrete foundations. A veritable mountain of gravel has been deposited in Church street in front of the property, to be used in mixing the materials for the foundation work.

Business Improvements.
A new front is being completed this week at the McClain store, in the Warden Hotel block. The workers today are putting down a new tile floor in the entrance. New show windows have been installed, improving the appearance of the store greatly. The new display windows and front in the King Company's store were finished last week. An attractive tile design was also put down in this entrance.

Return From Auto Trip.
Messrs. Fred Lieber and Ernest Thoma returned Wednesday night from an automobile trip to Kenton, where they were guests at the home of Mr. Lieber's sister, Mrs. Kennell. Mr. Lieber drove a new Ford roadster and got back without having any serious accidents. Both tourists struck up an acquaintanceship with a mule along the road, but dropped it immediately when the long-eared animal attempted a real "Maud" stunt by trying to demolish the machine.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 17. — Charles N. Doughty of this city has begun suit against Nat C. Goodwin, the actor for $25,000, alleging alienation of the affections of Mrs. Doughty, known on the stage as Margaret Moreland. Doughty refused to discuss the action.

Becker Alleged To Have Made Statement To a Fellow Prisoner in the Tomb.

New York, Oct. 17.—"When this sensation blows over, the public will give me a pension for killing that crook Rosenthal."

These are the words attributed to Police Lieutenant Charles Becker by James D. Hallen, a fellow prisoner in the Tomb, at the session of Becker's trial on the charge of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who squealed against him.

Hallen was one of 15 witnesses who testified for the state. Assistant District Attorney Moss announced when adjournment was taken that he had only one or two more witnesses to call to complete the case for the people.

Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, widow of the gambler, testified that Lieutenant Becker, her husband's alleged partner in his gambling house, had said to her on the occasion of a raid he had made on the establishment: "It's either Herman or me." This is the so-called fake raid which the prosecution claims was forced on Becker by his superior officers.

Mrs. Rosenthal testified also that when she came to bury her husband she had only $100 "to her name"—all that had been left her by Rosenthal. This was a bit of testimony elicited by the state with intent to spike the guns of Becker's defense.

"We introduce this," said Assistant District Attorney Moss, "because it has been claimed by the defense that gamblers gave Rosenthal $25,000 or some such sum, to insure his silence."

Members of the household of Jack Rose, Becker's alleged graft collector, told of frequent visits of the accused police official to Bald Jack's home.

Rose's Swedish maid swore that Becker was accustomed to breakfast with her master "nearly every day since Christmas."

Two waiters from the Union Square Hotel told of frequent meetings between Rose and Becker in the hotel dining room, when they talked "a long time." One of the waiters said he saw Rose pass the police lieutenant a "roll of bills."

trip and took the opportunity of visiting the big Lyon tabernacle, where his brother-in-law, Prof. R. E. Mitchell, has charge of the music. It was the first time he had ever seen the director in action and was convinced that it was a whole lot harder work than people would imagine. Incidentally, Mr. Campbell reports that the recent addition to Prof. Mitchell's family has some soloistic ability that will not permit itself to be overlooked, a fact that is calling Prof. Mitchell to attention next Monday morning.

FAKE SOLICITORS WORKING IN CITY

The business houses and homes in this city are being solicited by some one, who professes the Roman Catholic faith, for advertisements and donations, as they claim for charity's sake. Father O'Boylan wishes to say that no one should contribute to these unless the solicitor has a letter from Bishop Hartley of Columbus and also one with the seal of St. Francis de Sales church.

WELCOME

To Be Extended to the Librarians of Ohio.

It is hoped the citizens of Newark as a whole and individually, will extend a hearty welcome to the State Librarians, who will be our guests the first three days of next week. They are members of the State Library Association and are representatives of the University Libraries and Public Libraries of all over Ohio. There are in this great state of ours about 33 universities and colleges, which is more than an other one state in the Union can boast. Each one, of course, has its own extensive library and librarian. Our guests will be a splendid representation of Ohio, including almost every section. We want to make it our aim to give them such a pleasing impression of Newark and its people that the fame of the hospitality and courtesy of the town we love may be spread to all quarters of the state. The addresses given Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the High School Auditorium are open to all.

SALT FOR THE CRITTERS.

Good Way to Supply It is Loose in a Homemade Box.

The best way of salting cattle is to have it always available so that they may go to it at pleasure. This can be accomplished by having a brick of salt tacked up under the shed where the animals can lick it, or another good way to use loose salt is to construct a box, as shown in the illustration, which is partially filled with salt.

HANDY SALT BOX

The hole should be large enough that the animal can put its nose into it and lift the lid up. The cattle will examine the box, and smelling the salt through the half moon shaped hole, put their noses in and lift the lid up. As soon as they are through licking the lid will drop down and protect the salt from dirt and dust, and from rain, if the box is placed in pasture.—Iowa Homestead.

Chasing the Snail.

Snails are often a great nuisance in a greenhouse and equally so in a cellar. They can be trapped in quantities by placing about the cellar fresh slices of potato or turnip or fresh cabbage leaves. Expose the baits at night and in the morning gather up and destroy the snails clinging to them. Lime scattered about the cellar will repel the snails, also salt. Bits of gum camphor scattered about are offensive to them.—Rural New Yorker.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER TOMORROW AND SATURDAY

Men of Newark, do you realize that only one-half of the voters of this city are now registered and that only two more days remain for registration before the November election. Do you realize that unless you register anew this year that you will not be allowed to vote on November 5?

If you are one of the 3500 men in Newark who did not register on either Oct. 3 or 10, be sure to be at the polls tomorrow (Friday) between the hours of 8 and 2 or 4 and 9 in the evening. If by any chance you cannot go to the polls tomorrow, be sure and do so between the hours just mentioned on Saturday, Oct. 19. Tomorrow and Saturday are positively the last registration days except for those who may have been out of the city upon each of the four registration days this month.

On the last registration day last week, there was a tremendous rush in many of the precincts during the evening hours. As one-half of the men of Newark have not yet registered, undoubtedly there will be a rush tomorrow and Saturday evenings at all of the precincts. It is therefore important for those who are able to visit the polls between the hours of 8 and 2, reserving the evening for mechanics and workmen who cannot visit the polls during the day without loss of time from their work.

Every Newark man, in order to vote November 5, must register THIS year. The fact that you were on the registration books at the time of the recent Constitutional Convention election does not count. You must have registered on Oct. 3, 10, 18 or 19. Only two more days remain, tomorrow and Saturday. Remember to do your duty by going to the polls tomorrow and registering.

FOUR NATIONS FIGHT ANCIENT FOE TO DRIVE THE MOSLEM FROM EUROPE

TURKEY	300,000
BULGARIA	275,000
SERBIA	95,000
GREECE	65,000

Relative fighting strength of nations engaged in Balkan war. Drawn together by religious ties, four nations of Europe, erstwhile rivals, have combined to make common cause against their ancient foe, the Turk. These are, Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro, are Christian nations, and the motive that has called them to combat is the inextinguishable fraternal hatred of their common oppressor. The four nations combined have a greater fighting strength than Turkey, and they may well hope to destroy the power of the Ottoman empire in the present conflict.

Tonsilline Cures Sore Throat

The throat is one of the most delicate parts of the body. It is also one of the most important, and should be given the best possible care.

The throat is the gateway to the body. The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink, all pass through it. It is very easily affected by cold, strain, exposure, etc., and Sore Throat is therefore one of our most common ailments. Stagnant enough, it is also one of the most neglected.

Sore Throat is a very serious matter, for the whole system is in danger in consequence of it.

Every Sore Throat patient is a candidate for Tonsilline, Quinsy, Diphtheria and other serious or fatal diseases, all of which can be positively prevented by the timely cure of the Sore Throat by the use of TONSILINE.

If taken in time a dose or two will do it.

TONSILINE is made to cure throat diseases and nothing else. It is the one remedy for this purpose sold largely in the United States. Every user endorses it; every physician, knowing its virtues, commends it.

The one most important thing to remember about TONSILINE is the fact that it really does cure Sore Throat.

But people seldom lay the blame where it belongs until troubles multiply and the

POSTUM

This healthful beverage, made entirely of choice Northern wheat and the juice of Southern sugar-cane, tastes much like coffee but contains no caffeine, the habit-forming, health-destroying drug in both tea and coffee.

Everyone can drink Postum with fullest benefit.

Thousands of former tea and coffee drinkers have found it a means of regaining health and increasing their comfort.

SLEEP DESTROYERS Tea and Coffee.

She suffered from nervousness by day and sleeplessness by night.

"Up to three years ago," writes a young woman, "I was in the habit of drinking coffee freely and did not realize that it was injuring my health. (tea contains caffeine—the same drug found in coffee) till I was suddenly made the victim of nervous headaches so violent that I was compelled to give up household activities and stay in bed much of the time. Then insomnia came upon me and the wretchedness of sleepless nights was added to the agony of painful days."

"This lasted till a year ago, when I was persuaded by a friend to give up coffee entirely and use Postum. The result was, in less than a week I began to feel the change for the better, my nerves grew stronger and I began to sleep nights. Day by day the improvement continued and in a short time I was restored to health. My headaches left me, the nervousness passed away entirely, and I enjoy good, sound sleep at night."

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" is Harmless to Cleanse Your Stomach, Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels of Decaying Food, Sour Bile, Gases and Clogged up Waste

You old people, Syrup of Figs is particularly for you. You who don't exercise as much as you need to, who like the easy chair. You whose steps are slow and whose muscles are less elastic. You must realize that your liver and ten yards of bowels have also become less active. Don't regard Syrup of Figs as physic. It stimulates the liver and bowels just as exercise would do if you took enough of it. It is not harsh like salts or cathartics. The help which Syrup of Figs gives to a torpid liver and weak sluggish bowels is harmless, natural and gentle. When eyes grow dim, you help them. Do the same with your liver and bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive, clogged up bowels mean that decaying, fermenting food is clogged there and the pores or ducts in these thirty feet of bow-

A very pleasant event of last week was a surprise rendered Rev. J. R. Tibbles and family by the members of the M. E. Church and a few invited guests at their home on Thursday evening. The surprise was a complete one. However, Mr. Tibbles and wife soon recovered from the shock and devoted themselves to entertaining their guests, about 60 were present and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening, seasoned with music, ice cream and cake. Rev. Tibbles has been with the Hebron church for the past six years and it is with regret that the community in general see them leave with wish them wait in their new home at Reynoldsburg.

NOTHING DOING.

The times are swift, so help me Bob, and you can't be a-sleeping if you would get and hold a job that's really worth the keeping. You'll have to bump yourself, old scout, achieving and pursuing, and putting laziness to rout, or there'll be nothing doing.

Some youths acquire a punk renown that gives poor satisfaction; they loaf and languish in the town, and always shy at action. They talk of wrestling and of scrap and other games a-brewing, and when they try to get a snap, there's always nothing doing. Some clerks are always much afraid that they may, absent-minded, do more than that for which they're paid; such lads, by folly blinded, will run against a snag some day that they'll be always ruing; when they request increase of pay there'll be nothing doing. Oh, many of the village pets had habits are acquiring: cigars and loaded cigarettes they're diligently firing; they're betting on some dinky race, they're playing pool and chewing, and when they want to get a place there'll be nothing doing.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

Mrs. J. S.: Wrinkles and other marks of approaching old age are very common. However, you will not have to worry if you will follow this simple treatment before you meet your friends. It is a greaseless cream-jelly made by mixing two teaspoonfuls glycerine and one ounce almond oil into one-half ounce of water. Stir and stand several hours before using. Massage frequently with this cream; it will remove all dirt and excess oil from the skin, pores and in time you will not have a rough, wrinkled face, but a fresh, smooth, clean-looking skin of velvety texture. Also find this preparation excellent for removing tan, sunburn, blackheads, freckles and large pores in the skin.

Julia: Yes, any one afflicted with superfluous flesh is always at a big disadvantage when married or single. To get rid of that annoying fat, stop at your druggist's the next time they are down town and get four ounces of paraffin. Dissolve this in 1 1/2 pints hot water and take a tablespoonful three times a day (five minutes before each meal) and your bothersome flesh will soon become cut down. The effect of this harmless remedy is generally noticeable within a week, and you will feel much better.

R. P. N.: To whiten and beautify your face, neck and arms, dissolve four ounces of spunk in a half pint water, hazel or hot water, adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply this lotion freely and it will tone up your skin wonderfully and quickly. It makes the skin soft and smooth and will remove that dingy, muddy look which is so annoying to you. You will find this lotion much better to use than any other as it does not rub off and leaves no powder nor does it give one's face that "powdery look." I find this spunk lotion excellent for removing and preventing freckles, chapping and roughness of the skin.

Mrs. R. P.: If your hair is getting so thin that you have to wear a wig, you should begin at once a treatment to rid your scalp of dandruff, which is the direct cause of all scalp and hair troubles. If you will mix together an ounce of quinine, one-half pint of alcohol (not whiskey), and one-half pint of cold water, you will have a dependable remedy for your hair troubles. Rub this gently into the roots of the hair twice a week, and it will destroy the dandruff, stop your falling hair, and in time promote new growth of hair. This quinine-tonic will be regularly will make your hair soft, lustrous and keep it from splitting at the ends.

NO CHANGE IN NEW YORK BETTING ODDS

New York, Oct. 17.—Readjustment of presidential betting odds was indicated in Wall street, yesterday in consequence of the attempted assassination of Theodore Roosevelt and the possible sentimental effect that this might have on voters of the country.

No wagers of any importance were recorded, so that odds of 4 to 1 still stood nominally. It was said, however, that those who had been responsible for the establishment of these odds at the opening of last week were not offering so freely to take the long end of wagers.

Odds named generally were at 3 to 1 against Roosevelt, in favor of Woodrow Wilson.

As between Roosevelt and Taft for second place in the popular vote, betting was recorded at even money. If anything, sentiment favored Roosevelt to a slight extent.

Until a short time ago Taft was the favorite in betting on second place.

FIRST THINGS

The first commercially practical process for converting iron into steel was patented 57 years ago today by H. Bessemer. This important invention soon revolutionized the iron industry. The method was to burn out the excess carbon by the direct introduction of oxygen. Steel had been fabricated from earliest times by the Greeks, Egyptians and Assyrians. In 1722 Reamur discovered a direct process of making steel by immersing malleable iron in a bath of cast iron. A cast steel manufacturing was established near Sheffield, England, in 1740. Since Bessemer's epochal invention, the beginning of the modern steel industry, many improvements have been made.

Turkish cavalry leaving Constantinople.

There is great military activity at Constantinople, which city is now under martial law. Troops are being rushed to the front, several regiments having already departed. Many of the troops who are now being sent to the front are veterans of the Italian war. They are seasoned soldiers, believed to be more than a match for the Greeks and Balkan peoples, who know little about the art of war.

AMUSEMENTS

Marple-Norris Company Closes.
The final appearance of the Marple-Norris Musical Comedy company in Newark was attended last night by an audience of fair proportions. The company has demonstrated that it possesses merits not usually found in small traveling organizations. The roles have all been given with the strictest attention to the personal fitness of those who are to carry them, the chorus has been selected with a view to daintiness and ability and the general management of the production has been such as to deserve the widest commendation.

The fact that the company is owned by a Newark man, Harvey Marple, and that a Newark girl, Miss Ethel Porta, is appearing in the chorus, has been a large drawing card for the presentations in this city.

It is understood that bookings for the company have been deferred temporarily, pending the reorganization of the company and rehearsals on a new comedy, "The Bell Hop," which is to be featured on the to win the sympathy and interest of the audience. It is a part that is worthy of the undoubted talents of Miss Marshall, one of the greatest emotional actresses on the American stage.

Clarence Bennett and company have selected the supporting company for Miss Marshall with the same careful consideration for the parts that have been interpreted as marks all their companies. In the organization there will be found players well known to Broadway audiences. Each of the scenes is set in such fashion as to make it reflect the spirit of the play. The seat sale opens Monday.

Madame Sherry.
The company which will present "Madame Sherry" in this city Thursday, Oct. 24, at the Auditorium theatre is a company of talented performers who have won their spurs in many prominent productions. They, one and all, are players of wide versatility, having been selected with a southern circuits this fall and winter.

The Smart Set.
That a royal welcome awaits S. H. Dudley and the famous "Smart Set" company, which he heads again this season, is evident if a large advance sale is any criterion. When the mere announcement was made a few days ago that the noted colored comedian and his band of funmakers were to appear in Mr. Dudley's latest mirthful creation, "Doctor Beans from Boston," at the Auditorium on Friday evening, Oct. 18, a steady stream of requests for tickets began to pour in. This was not in the least surprising considering the popularity of Mr. Dudley and his reputation as a comedian.

"Dr. Beans from Boston" is a musical comedy in three acts, vastly different from the usual run of similar offerings. It is a real production, unfolding an interesting story and filled with features and novelties not found in other shows. Among those in the cast, besides Mr. Dudley, are Henry Troy, James Burris, Roy Gibson, Arthur Talbot, Bessie Parne, Lottie Grady and Alberta Ormes.

The Rosary.
"The Rosary," the play which was the talk of the country last season, is repeating its successes this season. This play of Edward E. Rose's which is founded upon an emblem of purity, is a tale of everyday life in which the good is exalted over the evil, showing the principal character as a Catholic priest as the modern day finds him. It is through the priest that a misunderstanding in the Wilton family is correctly adjusted and the misery and estrangement cleared up. Intermingled with the valuable moral effects of the show is a beautiful love story, and also an abundance of comedy that the average theatre-goer doesn't expect to witness, owing to the title of the play. Undivided strength is attached to the cast, which will consist of Florence Wright, Nellie De Coursey, Eleanor Rella, Harry Price, A. C. Van Slyke, Reginald Knorr, Henry Garrison and others.

"The Rosary," with the entire staging that Rowland & Clifford have so handsomely given the play, will be seen here for two performances, Saturday, Oct. 19. Seats now on sale.

The Price.
At the Auditorium on Wednesday, Oct. 23, for an engagement of one performance, Clarence Bennett and company will present Edna Marshall in "The Price," which has just terminated a highly prosperous engagement at the Hudson theatre, New York.

Miss Marshall had long been knocking at the door of stardom, when her creation of this part proved the sesame that gave her entrance. It is said that as Ethel Portant in her latest triumph she easily proves her right to stellar honors.

"The Price" is a modern drama in three acts. It tells the story of the fight a girl makes for love and happiness. Emmeshed by circumstances and scourged by a woman who hates her, there is much in Ethel Portant

The "Housekeeper" has many trials, much to think of. Her mind must be clear and not clouded by headache.

ROOSEVELT

He was sure it would not be near enough for a man who already was "almost well."

The attending physicians are expected at the hospital shortly after 8 o'clock when another examination of the patient will be made and a consultation held. When informed of the doctors' intentions, the Colonel remarked that "perhaps they would soon have him ready to start out again."

With the exception of the single time during the night Mrs. Roosevelt remained in her room and it was not until after 7 o'clock that she prepared for breakfast. When she found that the Colonel had again dropped off for a nap, she decided not to enter his room but to let him rest as long as he would. Mrs. Roosevelt had breakfast with her husband.

Hospital attaches took from the patient's arm a few drops of blood at 8:15 o'clock and departed for the laboratory to make the count of leucocytes. After this had been done and he had been comfortably settled in bed, he sent for the morning papers which he read with interest, including items of Chicago news.

The mirror he uses for shaving was lying near by and he raised it to catch a reflection of the city out his window. His room being on the west side of the building he could not judge by the light in the room whether it was clear or cloudy day until he hit upon observing for himself by aid of the mirror.

"This is great weather," he said to nurse Bianca A. Welter, who was arranging the dressings which were to be adjusted when the physicians made their morning examination. "It's a shame to be tied up here in such weather as this."

He glanced at Mrs. Roosevelt, who had joined him in looking over the papers. She smiled quizzically and shook her head.

"She's boss," he smiled to the nurse, taking up his papers again.

A steam fitting made an annoying noise in the tiny ante-room of his apartment and the house plumber came up to fix it. He made elaborate preparations not to make noise—to such an extent, in fact, that he was not making much progress. His embarrassment caught the eye of the Colonel and he said: "Oh, don't mind me. Go right ahead and fix it. Don't be afraid to make a little noise. I'm used to it."

Dr. Terrell visited the patient and spoke of the times during the coming day when the consulting physicians would gather to judge his condition. It was 8:40 when Doctors J. B. Murphy and J. F. Golden joined Dr. Terrell in the Colonel's room.

Theodore Roosevelt Jr. was the first of his children to call on his father today. He came at 9:30 and helped the stenographers in arranging the telegrams which had been received during the night.

With a pocketful of these he felt the Colonel would be most anxious to read, he went into the patient's room.

"How are you this morning?" asked the son.

"I've a few messages here and the boys are getting the rest sorted. We'll have them all in presently."

His mother joined them from her apartments, adjoining and the son inquired how she rested.

"Pretty comfortably, considering I was in a new place," she replied. "I don't feel tired or worn, then I shall be all right again."

The wait until the next bulletin was to be issued by the physician was filled by chess games between members of the party, replying to telegrams and mail and discussion of the relative merits of the two Chicago baseball teams which are contending for the city championship.

BRYAN TALKS ON SITUATION

Franklin, Ind., Oct. 17.—"It is embarrassing to discuss Mr. Roosevelt or his policies at this time, while he is suffering from the murderous assault made upon him," was the way William J. Bryan opened his first address on his Indiana tour here yesterday. "I would rather occupy the time," continued Mr. Bryan, "in denunciation of the deed, and in expression of sympathy for him and hopes for his speedy recovery, but the issues of this campaign should not be determined by the act of a madman."

"They must be settled by the same rather than the insane."

"Neither Colonel Roosevelt nor his friends could ask that the discussion be turned away from the principles that are involved."

"If he is elected president, he should be because of what he has done in the past and what he proposed to do. A maniac, however cowardly and dastardly his deed is not the arbiter to whom to submit a presidential contest."

Mr. Bryan will spend two days campaigning in Indiana.

NEWARK HIGH FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Newark High football team goes to Columbus Saturday to play North High. The game will be played at 10 a. m. owing to the Michigan State game in the afternoon. Many of the High School rooters and also the townspeople will take advantage of this situation and see both the games.

Newark High has a strong squad this season, having already defeated Granville High 31 to 7, and the strong Coshocton team that is coached by Porter of Ohio State, 6 to 0 at Coshocton. The game scheduled for last Saturday with Muskingum College was cancelled, but the contracts for every Saturday for the remainder of the season have been signed. The schedule is a strong one and should have the support of all the schedule follows:

AT HOME
Oct. 26—Zanesville High.
Nov. 2—Columbus East High.
Nov. 23—Columbus South High.
Nov. 28—Thanksgiving—Lancaster High.

The games away from home: On Nov. 9 Mt. Vernon High at Mt. Vernon; Nov. 16, Doane Academy at Granville.

Four strong games will be played at home. Season tickets will be on sale tomorrow for these games. The price will be fifty cents for the season of four games. It is hoped that a sufficient number of tickets will be sold among the citizens so that the games can be taken to Wehrle Park, it is regretted that the High School has no athletic field of its own, where the ladies may witness the games with some degree of satisfaction and the field will be roped off and the view from the stands unobstructed.

Buy a season ticket when the boys come to you and help along the high school athletics. It is hoped that the merchants will respond liberally. The price of admission at the gate for a single game will be 25c and for the Thanksgiving day game will be 35c, so it will pay you to buy a season ticket.

The boys of the team are working hard, under the direction of Coach Keckley in preparation for the game Saturday at Columbus. The first game home will be with Zanesville Oct. 26 week from Saturday. The lineup at Columbus will probably be as follows:

MUNSEY GAVE $118,000 FOR T. R. CAMPAIGN

Washington, Oct. 17.—Frank A. Munsey, publisher, today testified to the Clapp committee that his total contributions to Colonel Roosevelt's campaign this year had been $118,005.72. His pre-convention contributions to the national campaign totalled $67,000, and the balance was given to various state committees.

A copy of the Republican National committee's bank account in 1904 at the Fourth National Bank of New York, placed in evidence before the committee, showed one deposit of $240,000 during the latter days of October in that year. That was the sum of the disputed Harriman fund and the approximate time of its collection.

WHAT THEY SAY.
By Jake Stahl.
Boston, Oct. 17.—"We won the series, as I expected we would. The Giants gave us a great fight. I have nothing but praise for Hugh Biedent, the young pitcher, who went out in that important game and saved the series for the Red Sox."

By John McGraw.
Boston, Oct. 17.—"We were beaten in the series by bad fielding. I do not blame Snodgrass for his error in the tenth inning. It was simply the last boot in a series that has been full of the same sort of errors."

NOTES.
Smoky Joe Wood gets credit for winning the game.

President Ban Johnson of the American League went out on the field before the game and urged the Red Sox to win, for the glory of the American League.

A big delegation from New York was stung on the result. Many who had bet on the Red Sox for the series, sought to hedge by betting on New York on yesterday's game.

Wood won three of the games for his team, while Biedent got the other one.

The sport writers are unanimous in their assertions that Mathewson pitched the game of a master. His team mates tossed it away for him.

Attendance 17,034. And credit is given to Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston for the small crowd. He urged a boycott because the Red Sox officials refused to save seats for Boston fans in the seventh game.

The lightning-like play of Meyers, Mathewson and Herzog in the sixth inning was marvelous. With Lewis on first and Yerkes on third, Lewis went to second, hoping to draw the throw. Meyers shot the ball to Maty, who hurled to Herzog, catching Yerkes several feet off the bag.

In the fifth Maty pitched three balls—one each to Wagner, Cady and Biedent—all of whom went out on fly balls.

Pinch hitters were unlucky for Maty.

Snodgrass was in tears as he returned to the field following the game. He assumed the responsibility for the loss of the game.

This is the first series that ever went eight games since the introduction of the modern practice of seven games in 1905. In eight years there have been only two to go the limit, that of 1909, between Pittsburgh and Detroit, and that of this fall.

Fred Snodgrass was a sore individual last night. Aside from one great catch in Monday's game at the Polo Grounds, he has been of little use in the series. Twice he was saved from errors on muffed flies by the official scorers, who gave hits on balls that he dropped after getting both hands on them. The others were hard chances, but the one in the tenth inning yesterday could have been caught by a child. Merkle's play on Speaker's foul fly, which followed, was even worse than Snod's miff, which was just a plain error, while Merkle's stunt was a pure bone. He was standing on first base when the ball was put up and it fell within a few feet of the bag. Four or five steps would have brought him directly under it, but he let it go, probably thinking that Meyers was going to catch it. It is this sort of stuff that has earned the reputation of the Giants for being a wretched ball club except on inside play, when they can hit the opposing pitcher.

Supplemental Petition.

The Franklin National Bank, by its attorneys, Kibler & Kibler, has filed a supplemental petition in the matter of the Franklin National Bank vs. Kate M. Blood et al. The bank prays that the court appoint a receiver to take possession of the real estate of the defendant, to rent and collect rents and to pay the taxes and insurance on the property pending the decision of the court in the suit to marshal the liens.

Juvenile Court.

The juvenile court has taken charge of Stanley Cabot, a boy of 13 years, who claims to have come to this city from Chicago Junction in search of a married sister, whose name he does not know, but who, he says, lives in Anderson street.

About a week ago the boy was found along the railroad tracks and taken into the home of a family named Cramer, living in Ohio street.

The lad, who is a Polack, tells rather conflicting stories concerning his family, and the local officials are seeking to get into communication with the authorities in Chicago Junction for information about him.

Returned to Home.

Isaac Miller, the little lad who ran away from the Children's Home on Wednesday and returned to the home of his mother in Pataskia, was returned to the institution Thursday morning. He was brought back by George W. Kane, truant officer of the village.

Another of the Miller children, Etta, 15, who was held as a ward of the court, has been taken into the home of Mrs. Forbes Gamble, of Amherst.

Some people look on the bright side of things so persistently that they wind up the proud possession of a gold brick.

AMENDMENT THAT WILL AFFECT THE HOME BUILDERS

That the constitutional amendment permitting the framing of laws providing mechanics' and material men's liens will be the cause of a struggle between home building and loan associations and material men at the next session of the general assembly, is the prediction that is being made by the students of legislation.

It is said that the material men will try to force the passage of a law taking full advantage of the amendment and permitting all material men to take a positive lien on all buildings in the erection of which their material is used.

The home building and loan men assert that such a law will absolutely protect the material men, but would be a menace to the home builder.

The building and loan men aver that every home builder would have to take the risk of protecting every material man who might supply anything in the construction of his house, and that the law would be an actual deterrent to building.

In addition they declare that such a law would make it necessary for the home builder desiring to borrow money to furnish an indemnity bond for the protection of the building and loan association in the project.

"I don't know exactly what the effect would be," said one of the officials of a local building and loan association, "for the reason that I have not taken the matter up with our attorney as yet."

"At present we require a bond when the work is not done by a general contractor, but if a law is passed to the full extent permitted under the amendment, it is probable that an indemnity bond would be required for our protection."

"I do not believe that building operations will be seriously affected other than in the driving out of business of the irresponsible contractor."

Whatever the outcome, the prediction is that the general assembly will find the building and loan companies arrayed against the material men over the matter.

FAIR PLAY.

One of the hardest things to wash is a mechanic's shirt. It accumulates dust and grime and grease, naturally, and the effort to get that dust and grime and grease out with ordinary soap is something tremendous. Easy Task Soap, however, does half the work for you and makes the other half easier. Its duty is to get after the dirt and take it out. You don't have to rub and scrub over the tub. Tell your grocer you want it. Five cents a cake—same price as poor soaps.

THE BIRTHDAY CALENDAR.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Guard against accidents and do not scorn to notice small details. After a while you'll find that successful and pleasant friendships will be formed. In these be considerate.

Those born today will be inclined to act upon hasty judgment and will meet with many mishaps. They will be quick to learn, and their experiences will often teach them to be careful. Later in life they will be more fortunate.
